

Nikhil Shinde <shindenikhil102@gmail.com>

Pay Your L-1 Fraud Prevention Fee Online | Blanket L Visa – Chennai Consulate

1 message

ChennaiNIVFeeSupport <ChennaiNIVFeeSupport@state.gov>

Tue, Sep 8, 2026 at 9:10 AM

Dear Applicant,

Greetings from the U.S. Consulate General Chennai.

You are receiving this email because you have a Blanket L visa appointment scheduled with the U.S. Consulate General Chennai soon.

Please read these instructions carefully before visiting the U.S. Consulate for your visa interview.Fraud Prevention and Detection Fee - New Online Payment Option

Blanket L-1 principal applicants are required to pay a Fraud Prevention and Detection fee of $500. This fee can now be paid online prior to your visa interview for added convenience.

Online Payment EligibilityWho Is Eligible to Pay Online:

✓ First-time principal Blanket L-1 applicants who receive a payment request email from OnsiteFees@state.gov with their application details

Who Should NOT Pay Online:The following applicants should NOT attempt to pay online:

- ✗ Blanket L-2 applicants (dependents of Blanket L-1 applicants) are not subject to this fee at all. If you are a Blanket L-2 applicant receiving this email, please disregard it—no action is required.
- ✗ Blanket L-1 applicants renewing their visa using an already approved and valid Form I-129S for the remaining validity period are not required to pay this fee again.
- ✗ Individual L-1 applicants with an approved petition from USCIS (non-blanket) are not subject to this fee.
- ✗ Any applicant who did not receive a payment request email from OnsiteFees@state.gov—you are not eligible to pay online and should not attempt to do so.

All Blanket L-1 principal applicants must pay the $500 fee either online (if eligible) or at the Consular Cashier window.

The following instructions apply only to L-1 blanket applicants who are eligible to pay online :

By the end of business two days before your scheduled visa interview, eligible applicants will receive an email from OnsiteFees@state.gov with a secure payment link to Pay.gov.

If you receive this payment link email:

1. Follow the instructions in the email
2. Complete the payment online using one of the accepted methods: PayPal account, Venmo account, or debit/credit card
3. Print the payment confirmation receipt
4. Bring the printed receipt with you to your visa interview

Important Reminders:

- Do not make payment unless you receive a payment request email from OnsiteFees@state.gov. Payments made in error or without a request from the U.S. Consulate are non-refundable.
- If you do not receive a payment link email by the end of business two days before your appointment, you can pay the fee at the Consular Cashier window on the day of your interview using credit card, demand draft, or cash.
- If you experience technical issues with the online payment, do not attempt multiple payments. Instead, plan to pay at the Consular Cashier window on the day of your interview.
- If you do not receive payment confirmation from Pay.gov on your first attempt, do not attempt a second payment before confirming the status of the previous transaction with your bank.
- All fees, including duplicate payments, are non-refundable, regardless of whether your visa is issued or denied.

For complete details on fee requirements and payment options, please visit:

<https://www.ustraveldocs.com/in/en/step-3#visa-fees>

Questions?

If you have questions related to fee payments or appointment scheduling, please contact: Support-India@USvisascheduling.com

Document Preparation for Your Interview

Arriving with your documents organized in the exact order listed below will help you move through the visa interview more quickly and avoid unnecessary delays. Applicants who bring pre-arranged documents typically complete the check-in process faster, spend less time at the intake counter, and have a smoother interview experience overall.

Please arrange your two sets of petition documents in the following order before you arrive at the Consulate.

First Set: Consulate Copy

- Printed copy of your Pay.gov payment receipt confirming payment of the $500 Blanket L Fraud Prevention Fee
- DS-160 confirmation page of the Blanket L-1 applicant
- Form I-129S (first 8 pages)
- First page of Form I-797 of blanket petition

Second Set: Applicant's Copy

- Form I-129S (first 8 pages)
- First page of Form I-797 of blanket petition

Preparing these documents in advance helps ensure that your interview proceeds efficiently, reduces waiting time, and allows Consular staff to assist you more quickly.

Important Note: This is a system-generated email, and emails sent to this inbox are not monitored. Please use the contact information above for any inquiries.

Thank you,

U.S. Consulate General Chennai, India

Consular Section

Nonimmigrant Visa Unit

UNITED STATES of AMERICA

SENSITIVE BUT UNCLASSIFIED